Personal Reflection

Take time this week to pray & respond to the following:

Consider for a moment, the many unseen realities you accept as truth each day—the presence of the air you breath, the certainty of the sunrise & sunset, the time-proven love of those you hold most dear. In each of these instances, there is trustworthy reason to be confident in what you know to be true, even if there are not always tangible evidences to physically grasp.

The Holy Spirit is a bit like each of these examples. Though He is unseen and is perhaps, the most difficult member of the Trinity to conceptualize, the evidence for His existence is everywhere.

The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Holy Trinity, equal to the Father & Son in every way. He possesses a distinct nature, has a will & is personally involved in the lives of God's people. His power is limitless, His reach is without boundary & His knowledge is total. The Holy Spirit has always been & will always be.

What place have you given the Holy Spirit in your life? Do you find joy in His indwelling presence? Are you filled with His power?

Prayerfully ask God to heighten your sensitivity to the Holy Spirit's leading. Express your gratitude for the opportunity to experience all that He has to show & teach you throughout life. Renew your commitment to be a Spirit-filled, Spirit-led follower of Jesus Christ each new day.
